

The ARTHES Group is now ISO 22716 certified of GMP

With the permanent quest of innovation and quality improvement, the ARTHES Group got early 2016 the ISO 22716 Certification of Good Manufacturing Practices for Cosmetic

The ARTHES Group undertakes active steps about quality in order to improve its performance, acknowledgment and especially its customers' satisfaction.

By meeting the regulations of the Good Manufacturing Practices ISO 22716 for Cosmetic, the ARTHES Group ensures to its consumers and customers, manufacturing, packaging, control and storage of its products under conditions which respect their use and features.

These rules decree drastics measures in order to guarantee to European Union consumers safety, compliance, quality and traceability of cosmetic products.

The ARTHES Group established for more than 35 years in Grasse is creator of quality perfumes and cosmetics at competitive prices.

One of the French leaders in mass market with its brands Jeanne Arthes and Jeanne en Provence, the Group has a Private Label Division and sells in more than 120 countries, and over 4000 points of sale in France.

Its plant with a 120 000 bottles daily production capacity owns a laboratory and cosmetics workshops.